THE IMPORTANCE OF THIS MONTH'S BIBLE BOOKS:

What if the very thing you need to move forward is remembering what God has already brought you through?

Life has a way of making us forget just how faithful God has been, especially when we're navigating new seasons, unanswered prayers, or unexpected challenges. This November, we're taking 30 days to revisit the promises, provisions, and mighty works of God through Scripture. As we journey through each chapter, we'll be reminded of His unchanging character, the importance of gratitude, and the hope we have in His promises. More than simply remembering what God has done, this study invites us to recognize His faithfulness in our present circumstances and trust Him with what lies ahead. May this month be an intentional reminder to never forget the One who has carried us through it all.
